Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of 123 Greetings.com Inc. which comprise the balance sheet as of March 31, 2018, and the related statement of income, retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of 123 Greetings.com Inc. as of March 31, 2018 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplemental Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information which includes the supporting schedules and general and administrative expenses schedule is presented for purposes of additional analysis only and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied to the audit of the financial statements, and in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements as a whole.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

123 Greetings.com, Inc ("The Company"), incorporated in the state of Delaware on May 27, 1999 under the name of Intrasoft Media Technologies, Inc. to provide Internet based electronic greeting cards delivery services. During the second quarter of 2009, the company began operations of its e-commerce business.

On August 31, 1999 the Company changed its name to 123 Greetings.com, Inc.

Cash and cash equivalent

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all temporary cash investments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalent.

Revenues

Electronic greeting cards delivery service:

Revenues are principally generated from impressions of customer's banners on the company's web site. Revenues are recognized and billed on the last day of the month using industry recognized reporting.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable totaled $192,448 as of March 31, 2018. The Company considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been established. If accounts become uncollectible, they will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

Advertising costs

The company expenses advertising costs as incurred. For the year ended March 31, 2018 advertising costs were $3,883.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated lives of the related assets.
